

TICKET POLICY STATEMENT

Tickets to Recording Academy™ events, including but not limited to the GRAMMY® Awards, are for use by the account holder and his or her invited guest(s) only (to be accompanied by the account holder), are not transferable by the account holder or any of his or her invited guests, and may not be sold, otherwise transferred or used for any other purpose, including promotional, commercial, advertising, or other trade purposes, without the express written consent of the Recording Academy.

Tickets sold, otherwise transferred or used in violation of this Ticket Policy shall be deemed revoked and void, and their bearers deemed trespassers at (and subject to ejection from) all Recording Academy events.

By accepting delivery of tickets, the account holder and his or her guests are bound by this Ticket Policy and the account holder agrees to inform with due diligence all of his or her invited guests of the terms of this Ticket Policy and obtain their consent to the same.

The Recording Academy reserves all legal rights and remedies with respect to any violation of this Ticket Policy.
