Throughout the year, the GRAMMY Foundation brings our initiatives of music education, preservation, and advancement to life through a variety of awards, events, and programs. Thanks to nationwide outreach efforts, we attract diverse participants — from young people and teachers applying for our GRAMMY in the Schools programs to archivists, librarians, and scientific researchers submitting proposals to our GRAMMY Foundation Grants Program. This Community Services Report is a retrospective look at our 2015 Fiscal Year (Aug. 1 — July 31), and an opportunity to reflect on our achievements, all thanks to the support of our generous donors. Join us as we review our year, by the numbers …

“The experience of two years of GRAMMY Band has given my son so much confidence and inspired him to keep practicing and challenging himself musically. He is humbled by the caliber of musicians he has been fortunate enough to play with, and his bond with his fellow campers has transcended GRAMMY Band to other honor band and college settings. These kids have truly become a support group for each other. He has also received incredible mentorship by the amazing staff. I know that he will make an effort throughout college and his career to mentor musicians as he has been mentored, and to further the cause of music in the schools. Thank you, again, for everything!”

— Parent, GRAMMY Camp Jazz Session Alum

“[I] realized that music was not just an enjoyable activity, but that it has the power to change even the darkest of days into days filled with hope and excitement. On behalf of the thousands of music educators and music programs across the nation, I cannot express our gratitude enough to the GRAMMY Foundation and The Recording Academy for this recognition.”

— Jared Cassedy
2015 Music Educator Award Recipient

“Being recognized with the GRAMMY Signature School Award was such a moment of validation for our students and for our community. We were able to get the impulse and the motivation to move forward in our music education. This really helps to recruit great students to our school and creates a wonderful culture for them to be in. It helps reinforce the excellence of our program with our school’s administration.”

— Margarita Muriz Academy, Jamaica Plains, MA 2015 GRAMMY Signature Schools Enterprise Award Recipient
The GRAMMY Foundation Legacy Concert "Lean On Me: A Celebration Of Music And Philanthropy" was held on Feb. 5, 2015 in Los Angeles. Now in its 17th year, this year's benefit concert for our preservation efforts explored the evolution of music's role in advancing philanthropy. The sold-out show included performances by GRAMMY winners Melissa Etheridge and Willie Nelson, GRAMMY nominee Aloe Blacc and many others.

The 17th Annual Entertainment Law Initiative Luncheon, held on Feb. 6, 2015, featured a keynote address by Rep. Jerrold Nadler (D-N.Y.) and remarks by Russell J. Frackman, who received the 2015 Service Award. Scholarships were presented to the five winners of the 2015 ELI Writing Competition. To be considered, these law students submitted essays addressing legal issues facing the music industry today.
GRAMMY IN THE SCHOOLS LIVE!
